ent man from headquarters will be here all the time, and right on the job, to see that it is completed according to specifications, and in the is a stickler to have things done just according to contract, and in case a job is not completed in the specified time contractors are required to pay heavy forfeits, which are specified in the contract.

Was Buried at Brushy Creek.

The funeral of Mr. W. W. Evans occurred at Brushy Creek Sunday, and the remains were followed to their last resting place by a large number of relatives and friends. Mr. Evans died at his home at Brushy Creek Saturday. He left a family to mourn his death.

Received Mashed Hand.

Mr. Clarence Kolstad came home at night nursing a mashed hand which was pinched in making a coup-ing-near Houston, the victim being in the train service. He was carried to his home, corner Lacy and North Sycamore streets, where proper treatment was given the wound. It is thought no permanent injury will result, though the hand was right badly injured, some of the bones being broken and the flesh considerably lacerated.

Deaf Mutes to Austin.

This morning a special car passed through on its way to Austin, and in it were a number of deaf mutes, children, on their way to the state school at Austin. They were joined here by several from the city, county and near territory. Among them was a little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pell of this city. Most of the children seemed cheerful and happy, but one little boy who joined the party here set up a howl, and could not be comforted. The car of children was in charge of a gentleman attached to the school.

Judge Freeman Was Here.

Judge J. Freeman, receiver and manager of the I. & G. N., ough the city from the morning. But few knew he as he did not leave his car.

GUESTS OF PRESIDENT

Chinese Naval Delegation Attended a Dinner at the White House.
Will Soon Sail for Home.

(Herald Special.)

Washington, D. C., Sept. 27.—The Chinese naval delegation headed by Prince Hsun, which has spent the past month inspecting the United States navy and its methods, attended a dinner at the White House today as guests of President Taft. Tomorrow the prince and his staff will visit the naval academy at Annapolis and on Thursday the party will leave for San Francisco en route home.

Interstate Fair at Trenton.

(Herald Special.)

Trenton, N. J., Sept. 27.—The annual New Jersey Interstate Fair got under way today with a big crowd of visitors and the largest display in every department ever known on an opening day. The speed program, comprising trotting and pacing races, was inaugurated this afternoon and will continue until Friday, the closing day of the fair. Purses aggregating $7000 will be distributed among the winning owners.

Why?

Judging by the interviews as published in the state papers from J. W.
Madden of Crockett, one would infer from them that the people of this senatorial district, and especially of Houston county, need his counsel regarding the vacancy in the senate caused by the death of Senator Stokes of Crockett. Mr. Madden is free to express himself on the subject, and makes the broad statement that he will not be a candidate for the place or never intended to, but by reading between the lines, the Herald thinks that probably while he will not be a candidate, he feels just a little sore because he was not endorsed for the place. Now that he was not endorsed, and, as he says, will not be a candidate, we fail to see what point he is driving at, being continually interviewed and trying to stir up strife, centering his criticisms on the Angelina county candidate. The people from "over the district," as Mr. Madden speaks of, should be interviewed by the state papers, as has been Mr.
Madden, so the people could see who it was that Mr. Madden had reference to. The Herald does not like a one-sided fight as being agitated by Mr.
Madden. Judge Townsend and Captain Fowler are the same age, both very popular in the social and political world, both from wet counties—and Fowler an anti-prohibitionist and Townsend a prohibitionist. They have an even break in every way and are now making joint speeches over the district in a quiet, genteel manner, free from any mud-slinging or personal remarks, and we fail to see where Mr. Madden's advice is needed.

MUSICAL WILSONS

Pleased Large Audience at the Air-dome Last Night.

The management says:

The Musical Wilsons, a high-class vaudeville team, opened a three days' engagement at the Airdome last night to a large house, and they certainly "made good," notwithstanding the fact that they did not arrive in town until after 7 o'clock last night and were handicapped to some extent in not having sufficient time to get their musical instruments and electrical effects set up. This is without doubt the most expensive and elaborate act in vaudeville that has yet been presented at the popular little Airdome Theater. They will, if possible, present a more finished act tonight, and no one should miss the opportunity of seeing these talented musicians. Mr.

Wilson is favorably remembered here by many friends, having filled an engagement in this city with Whitman's Comedians a few years ago.
Some extra fine subjects in film d' art motion photography will be exhibited tonight, the feature film being a Vitagraph subject, entitled, "Victims of Fate." This is a silent drama pulsating with truths stronger than fiction, making a lasting impression for good on the minds of all who see it. It reaches the heights of passionate suspense and sways to the realms of tenderest sentiments.

A Nail in the Leg.

Yesterday Master Marston Pell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pell, and aged 14 years, was the victim of a serious accident at the Fourth Ward school.
He ran a rusty nail into the calf of his leg while at play on the grounds.
A doctor treated the wound and the little fellow was sent to his home. It will be some days before he can return to school.

Stuck in Good and Hard.

A white man was up before the city court yesterday morning who got it good and hard. He was arrested at a picture show Saturday night on complaint of a woman that he had addressed insulting remarks to her.
This was the second time he had been arrested, so it is claimed, for a similar offense. He wanted to plead guilty to a simple disturbance, or something like that, but the city attorney would not let him enter a plea of guilty, and he was stuck to the tune of $25 and costs. Last night he took a train for the outer world.

The Jury Returns Unanimous Verdict.

(By a Staff Correspondent.)

A jury consisting of some of the most distinguished chemists of America has returned an unanimous verdict of "not guilty" in the case of Knocker et al vs. Coca-Cola. It will be remembered that some time ago a report was circulated to the effect that Coca-Cola contained injurious materials and was, therefore, harmful in its effect upon the human body.

The rumor was originated by an unscrupulous competitor of Coca-Cola, the popular temperance drink, spread rapidly and found some credence among those who did not know the origin of the report.

The jury finds that not only does Coca-Cola contain nothing harmful, but that it is much superior to tea and coffee in that it is free from tan-nic acid and, therefore, promotes digestion instead of retarding it. Each of the distinguished chemists reported that he had made a careful chemical analysis of Coca-Cola and found it to contain no "dope" of any kind. If you would like to see copies of these letters, write to the Coca-Cola Co., Atlanta, Ga., for a free copy of a booklet entitled "The Truth About Coca-Cola." The jury was as follows:

1. Jno. M. McCandless, State Chemist of Georgia.
2. B. B. Ross, State Chemist of Alabama.
3. Dr. A. L. Metz of Tulane University.
4. Prof. W. B. Burney of South Carolina College.
5. Prof. C. H. Palm of the University of Texas.
6. Dr. Wm. H. Toyloe, State Chemist of Virginia.
7. Dr. Louis Schaefer, Prest. Schaefer Alkaloid Works, Maywood, N. J.
8. Prof. Emerson R. Miller of Ala-Polytechnic Institute.
9. Dr. J. C. Mims, Chemist of the Board of Health, New Orleans.

IN THE GOOD OLD FASHIONED DAYS

Powdered Wigs Formed an Important Adjunct to a Gentleman's Apparel.

It is safe to say that the majority of bald men of today would gladly revive the old, dignified custom if they could. But they can do the next best thing to it; that is, hold on to what hair they have.

In cases where the hair root or hair bulb has not been completely destroyed by parasites that infest it, Newbro's Herpicide will do wonders in the way of encouraging a new growth of hair. Destroy the cause,
